

Interested in clerkship opportunities and/or residency at Northwestern?
You're invited to the
2008 Residency Program Showcase

Northwestern McGaw Center for Graduate Medical Education offers residency training in 24 specialties. Our highly distinguished programs are renowned for world class training, instruction and facilities. We have four different training locations serving a diverse population in Chicago and surrounding suburbs. This program is open to all students, and we strongly encourage students with diverse backgrounds and skill sets to attend. McGaw is committed to diversifying its residency programs, so we hope you'll take this opportunity to explore what we have to offer!

Friday, May 9, 2008, 4-8 pm
Northwestern Chicago Campus
Prentice Women's Hospital Conference Center
250 E. Superior Street
Chicago, IL 60611

Register for free by May 5th at:
www.feinberg.northwestern.edu/education/visiting\_students
Check out the website for more information

Attendees will:

- ★ Meet with program directors from all our training program areas
- ★ Tour our facilities
- ★ Meet current residents
- ★ Attend scheduled activities with specific programs of their choice (tours of other training locations, department dinners, etc.)